HYGIENE

DISH WASHING

Wounds on the skin that could become infected.

Sponges should always be washed after use, never use them on food or utensils. Please and other items will come into contact with food should be placed to prevent contamination.

Personal Hygiene

Water

The water in many areas has been contaminated with human waste, which can carry various bacteria and viruses that can cause illnesses.

Food Preparation

Communication from those in the open air.

Soap

Contaminating Your Health

Hands around the eyes

Dry your hands with a clean towel after washing.